ARTICLE 1 NAME AND JURISDICTION

1. This organization shall be known as Unifor Local 2289 (hereinafter called the “Local”).
2. This Local has been established and exists by virtue of a charter issued to it by Unifor (hereinafter called the “National Union”) pursuant to the Constitution of the National Union (hereinafter called the "National Constitution").
3. The Local, its Executive Board Members and all those elected, appointed or employed to act on its behalf will not threaten, intimidate, or unlawfully discriminate against any member for reason of that member’s pregnancy, age, marital status, disability, sex, sexual orientation, race, creed, colour, religious beliefs, national origin, political affiliation, records of offense or for exercising any rights under the National Constitution, Policies, By-Laws or Collective Agreement. The Local will not subject a member to harassment.
4. This Local shall be subdivided into four (4) Districts. These Districts shall be broken into nine (9) Units. They shall be as follows:

District #1	Unit #1	Sydney
	Unit #10	Port Hawkesbury
District #2	Unit #2	Antigonish/New Glasgow
	Unit #3	Truro
	Unit #4	Amherst
District #3	Unit #5	Halifax, Dartmouth, Sackville, Bedford
District #4	Unit #6	Bridgewater
	Unit #7	Yarmouth
	Unit #8	Kentville

ARTICLE 2 PURPOSE

1. The purpose of this Local is to unite all workers within its jurisdiction for the following purposes:
 - (a) To improve their wages and hours of work, to increase their job security and to secure working conditions conducive to safety and good health;
 - (b) To advance their economic, social, political and cultural interests; to disseminate information among workers regarding economic, social, political and other matters affecting their lives and welfare;
 - (c) To give assistance and encouragement to organizations in organizing workers and to engage in such other activities as may be necessary or proper to strengthen the labour movement and to extend the process of collective bargaining throughout all trades and industries;
 - (d) To secure legislation safeguarding and promoting economic security and the social welfare of all workers;
 - (e) To preserve and extend civil rights and liberties within a free and democratic society;

- (f) To promote the policies and goals of the National Union;
- (g) To promote and uphold the By-Laws and policies of the Local and the Constitution and Policies of the National Union.

2. Local shall endeavour to accomplish the foregoing purposes by organizing the unorganized workers within its jurisdiction, educating its membership, negotiating collective bargaining agreements with employers, securing progressive legislation, and by all other appropriate means within the National Union.

ARTICLE 3 LOCAL STRUCTURE

1. The structure of the Local shall consist of the following (in no specific order):

- Membership Executive Board
- Unit Representatives
- Chief Stewards
- Shop Stewards
- Committees

2. The headquarters and main office of this Local shall be in the Halifax Regional Municipality, Nova Scotia or such other place as may be designated by the Executive Board of the Local.

ARTICLE 4 MEMBERSHIP

1. Eligibility

Any person eligible for membership in the National Union, as defined in Article 5 of its Constitution shall be eligible for membership in this Local if performing work within the Local's assigned jurisdiction; or on temporary transfer outside the Local's assigned jurisdiction; or if dismissed and the grievance is not yet resolved; or on layoff with recall rights. If there is no reasonable chance of recall, a person is not eligible for membership.

The Local may accept into membership any person who has applied for membership in the National Union and has paid the appropriate fees.

A member in good standing is a person who has signed a membership card and paid the required initiation fee. The member must adhere to all rules as stipulated on the application form; subject to conditions in Article 5 of the National Constitution.
